Travel Guide

How You Were Graded

You made a travel guide to introduce a country and presented it to the class. Everyone's project looked and sounded a little different, and that's great! What matters most is how well you prepared and how you used your class time.

Time You spoke for the full time and made good use of the time you had to present.	/ 5
Pronunciation You spoke clearly and pronounced your words carefully so the class could understand you.	/ 5
Entertainment Your presentation was interesting, fun to watch, and kept the audience's attention.	/ 5
Relevance You included useful, important, and fun information about the country that fit the project theme.	/ 5
